

Notes from the Azalea Park Neighborhood Association

Meeting of February 10, 2015

Officer David Felkins passed out flyers regarding the Community Walk For Peace which will be held at 9:00AM on February 28th; also, flyers regarding the City Heights Community Walk of February 21st at 9:00AM. He also provided a flyer regarding the Point Loma Nazarene University Festival of Health to take place on April 11th at 4101 University Avenue from 9AM to 2PM.

Rudy Vargas, of Marti Emerald's office, passed out that office's newsletter which included the number for the Code Enforcement Office. The newsletter highlighted her priorities including public safety issues. He announced that ODI (Ocean Discovery Institute) has recently received one million of dollars in pending development.

Jim Martin, lead member of the Pop Street Project, announced the "labor intensive" upcoming events of February 7th and 14th.

Brian Elliott, on behalf of Nicole Capretz (founder of the CAP--Climate Action Campaign and former energy adviser to the city) presented San Diego's Climate Action Plan (CAP) draft to the attendees. His goal is to engage/educate the public on the CAP. The Cap is a legally enforceable document which sets out goals for the following five strategies: energy and water efficient buildings, clean and renewable energy, biking/walking/transit issues, zero waste and climate resiliency. A link to the full plan: <http://www.sandiego.gov/planning/genplan...>The CAP group seeks public input. If we choose, we can write a letter of support to the mayor and city council.
