

Notes from the APNA meeting of January 10, 2012

Lindsey Masukawa, of Assemblywoman, Toni Atkins' office, introduced herself and stated that she will be attending the APNA meetings monthly and next month will present news of fiscal interest.

Our neighbor, David Shorey, announced preliminary interest in establishing a coffee shop in Azalea Park; he will keep us abreast of developments as they occur.

Vicki Leon presented an update on the Neighborhood Identification project. She has met with the city engineer and with Pam Isson.

Vicki stated that the city is trying to get Harmon Nelson re-involved in the project. She stated that the project appears to have been stalled and possibly still is stalled.

Evie Kosower gave a report on the year of 2012 as the 100th anniversary of the Free Speech Bill and movement; that on January 20th various rallies would be held throughout San Diego County (and at the San Diego County Courthouse locally).

Jaime Diego (on behalf of himself and family) announced the eleventh anniversary of home ownership in Azalea Park.
