

Notes from the APNA meeting of July 10, 2010

Jim Stone of the organization Walk San Diego spoke in promotion of walkable communities. He noted that walkability can lead to increased safety of communities and to increased property values.

Deanneka Goodwin, of Congresswoman Susan Davis' office, passed out the office's newsletter and spoke briefly of the Affordable Care Act.

Officer Rene Murillo spoke of a child abuse case and also of a double homicide case on 44th street.

Marne Foster, a candidate for San Diego Unified School Board District E, addressed the attendees.

Mentions were made of up-coming events including a food drive, the anniversary of the local Farmers Market and The Fiesta Del Sol to be held in Cesar Chavez Park
