

Notes from the Azalea Park Neighborhood Association

Meeting of March 11, 2014

Cheryl, from Fairmount Park, announced that there will be a Fairmount Park yard sale on April 5th.

Parkster Diego passed out a flyer announcing the 21st annual San Diego Latino Film Festival.

Rudy Vargas, from Councilmember Marti Emerald's office, announced the ribbon-cutting for the new pedestrian crosswalk at Murphy's Market.

He also mentioned an up-coming community walk on March 26th and spoke of the recently installed officer Jeremy Henwood Memorial sign. He handed out a flyer regarding the April 26th Packer clean-up that involves the streets Poppy to Snowdrop.

Raquel Maden, from Senator Ben Hueso's office, provided that office's newsletter which includes an on-line link to conserve water in addressing the California drought. She announced the May 2nd "community coffee."

Felicia Shaw stated that Azalea Park has submitted a proposal for the Great Neighborhood Challenge.

Jose Diaz reported that some recent additions have been made to the Azalea Park website and that he is open to further input re: same.

Parkster Yvonne said she has signed us up for the Gay Pride Parade (40th anniversary of the Pride event). She generously donated the fee rather than receive reimbursement.

President Ricardo spoke of the newly installed garden plots installed at the St. George Antiochian Orthodox Church. A motion was made and carried to reimburse Ricardo and Jim for $360.00 for expenses related to that installation.

Gabe Gutierrez, of County Supervisor Ron Roberts' office, announced the availability of free tax service for those who qualify. He also reported that the new waterfront park near downtown will open on May 10th. It's 16 acres are geared toward children. He again reported on the upcoming lawnmower trade-in (gas to electrical).

President Ricardo reminded everyone of the March 15th (10:00-2:00) Azalea Park garden tour. He suggested again doing a "mixer" at the April APNA meeting.

Notes presented by Bob Walters, APNA Secretary